Executive Proclamation
Office of the Governor

Whereas, Preston (Buster) and Mable Hill exchanged their wedding vows, promising to share their lives and love together for the rest of their days; and,

Whereas, Buster and Mable gave life and love to 5 children, who in turn presented them with 12 grandchildren and 18 great-grandchildren; and,

Whereas, Buster and Mable owned and operated farms, a large sheep ranch, farm implement and ranch supply businesses and Studebaker dealerships in Vale, Newell and Belle Fourche; and,

Whereas, Through their lifelong dedication to the values of caring and sharing, Buster and Mable have helped make South Dakota a great place to live and work; and,

Whereas, Buster and Mable will celebrate their 70th Anniversary with all the good wishes, fanfare and celebration such a milestone warrants; and,

Whereas, It is altogether fitting and proper that the Governor of South Dakota recognizes and commemorates the memorable occasions in the lives of the state's outstanding citizens:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim September 20, 2006, as in South Dakota, and I join with the honored couple's family and friends in wishing them continued health and happiness in a state that stands prouder today because of their contributions and commitment.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Eighteenth Day of September in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Six.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
